The FamilyWize Prescription Savings Card is a reusable, no-cost tool that provides discounts on prescription medications. Since 2005, over 11 million people have saved over $1 billion simply by presenting their card at the pharmacy!

FamilyWize also provides a Drug Price Look-Up Tool for individuals to see the savings on each prescription and find their local pharmacy with the best FamilyWize price.

Here are a few frequently asked questions that the employers might have.

1. If we offer insurance, how will this help my employees?

The FamilyWize Prescription Savings Card can help lower costs if their:

- Prescription medications are not covered under an insurance plan.
- Co-pay is higher than the cost of the prescription if you used the FamilyWize card.
- High annual deductibles will not be reached.
- 59% of prescriptions filled under the FamilyWize program fall below $25.00.

2. How will this help my employees?

Your employees can get the lowest price on prescriptions, simply by showing their pharmacist the FamilyWize Prescription Savings Card along with their insurance every time they fill a prescription.

3. How often can my employees use the FamilyWize card?

- Card use is unlimited; it can be used every time a prescription is filled.
- If their card is lost, they can easily get another by downloading the free FamilyWize app, or by going to familywize.org.

4. There are other discount cards. How is FamilyWize different?

FamilyWize:

- Costs nothing – it’s like a coupon that can be used as often as your employees want.
- Does not require registration or have eligibility criteria. However, by registering, your employees can receive additional information and value.
- Provides an easy-to-use Drug Price Look-Up Tool so your employees know the best FamilyWize price prior to filling their prescriptions.

5. What is the drug price look-up tool?

Drug prices vary by pharmacy. FamilyWize’s Drug Price Look-Up Tool is provided free of charge on familywize.org and via the free FamilyWize app. Your employees can enter the name of their medication and zip code to see which local pharmacy has the best FamilyWize price prior to filling their prescription.

6. Is FamilyWize a nonprofit organization?

FamilyWize is a social enterprise organization, meaning we use a business model to achieve social good. Our financial model is self-sustaining, as funding for all aspects of the program comes solely from a processing fee that is included in the cost of the medication.
